

Back to the Future? How about Back to the Past?

Now available is a DVD of the Jamesburg/Monroe area as it was in 1931-32. The video depicts businesses in the area as well as the school children from Jamesburg, Monroe and Helmetta. You may even recognize some of the people in this DVD. The video is approximately 22 minutes long and a small glimpse of the area over 75 years ago.

The cost of this amazing video is $10.00 per copy. It is being sold through American Legion Star Post 127.

If you would like a copy, please contact: Allan E. Brown, Commander of Star Post 127 at (609) 409-8283. He will be glad to provide you with as many copies as you would like.

Help support our veterans

They did great when called upon. Now they do wonderful things for veterans in need.

