Dispatcher Stephanie Rampacek, Police Dispatcher / Firearms Applications,

PATROL DIVISION

The Patrol Division is the backbone of the Police Department. The department has 10 patrol officers that are supervised by 3 patrol sergeants.

Responsibilities

Patrol Officers are responsible for the initial handling of all calls that are received by the communications center. These calls vary from disabled vehicles to felony level crimes in progress. Calls that necessitate an immediate arrest are handled and completed by the patrol officer including all processing and bookings of the suspect.

Calls that require further investigation are referred by the officer to one of our specialty units such as the Detective Bureau.

DETECTIVE BUREAU DIVISION

The Detective Bureau is currently staffed by 2 Detectives responsible for conducting all follow up investigations of reported incidents. Any crimes reported are reviewed by the Detective Bureau Sergeant and are assigned for follow up investigation. Detectives receive extensive training in several areas including:

Crime Scene Investigation

Fingerprinting and Identification

Forensics Photography

Narcotics Enforcement

Interview and Interrogation

Megan's Law registration

In addition, the detectives encourage the sharing of information with members of the public. Many investigations are initiated as well as solved through this type of cooperative effort
